President's Message

Mary Cobb

I know you all took care of your family and friends this season. Now make sure and take care of you a little. Find ways to keep warm (bath, warm drinks, and comfort). Always know we are here for you.

Hum along.

Value commitment, honor tradition, foster personal growth, expect accountability, and share accomplishments while building relationships and creating friendships.

Now they make new movies in old black and white.
With happy endings, where nobody fights.
So if you find yourself in that nostalgic rage
Honey, jump right up and show your age.

I wish I had balance in OJSL.
The "honor tradition" kind.
A two-toned creating friendships.
And an autographed picture of accountability.

I remember sharing accomplishments.
Writing in service.
Oh, I wish we could achieve balance in OJSL.
Then we could solve some fundraisers too.

Then it's 70's anniversary party, Old Settlers, Derby Banquet comin' and goin' too fast.
Drinkin' wine or margaritas.
Yeah, and I Am Woman was by Helen Reddy.
But only jazz musicians were at Harling's.
Oh, I could do some cruisin' too.

Here's to 2023!

Provisionals' Project

Debbie, Emily, Eve, Heather, Jennifer, Kelli, Noelle, Roberta

The Provisionals have selected their group project – helping expand Center of Grace’s “home goods” section of their clothing closet. Provisionals will share more about the project at January Coffees.

If you find yourself clearing out the old to make room for the new, consider holding the old items back. Center of Grace’s home goods section is looking for all those little things (new and gently used) that make a house a home – blankets, bedding, kitchen goods, décor (new candles, baskets, wall art), board games, and more.
